My halal

I will function as an intercessor. I will lift my voice to God in contrition and allow Him to welcome me into the secret place of thunder.

I am called to be a son and a saint, gladly ministering alongside the angelic according to the will and purpose of God.

I willingly submit myself to the right hand of the Throne of God, where Jesus welcomes me. Subsequently, I will commit to faith and walk accordingly. My prayer will rise as incense before my heavenly Father.

I commit myself to serve in the high places (bama) of God's choosing. Whether they be upon earth or in the heavens, I will establish places of praise to God while teaching others to serve as disciples of His presence in a similar way.

I will be Christlike, endeavoring to become an heir and joint heir with Him. I am a child of God, and as a devoted son, I want to represent my heavenly Father in the eyes of those who see me.
